1. Working Object, Background and Intention

The "Seller" is the legal owner of the property:

The "Seller" intends to find a potential buyer for his property and wants to promote his property on the European and as well the North American (Canada/ USA) market by using the internet as an advertising tool.

ECC is providing the Seller" with the web design for his own "property for sale web page". ECC 's own webpage (ecc-ca.com) is the platform for advertising for the created "property for sale web page".

ECC is providing a wide range of consulting services for people interested in immigration into Canada or are interested in an investment. With its own webpage ECC is drawing over 1,200 new visitors and potential investors and immigrants to its webpage every month.

Neither Michael Strauch nor ECC are working as realtor. With this contract there will no commission fee be arranged, charged or agreed on. The content of the contract and the service proposed and provided are solely related to Internet Marketing / Advertising for and in the name of the Seller.

2. Provided Services

Michael Strauch will:

- Design a one page "property for sale web page" for the seller, based on the information and pictures (max. 6) provided by the "Seller".
- The "property for sale web page" will be bilingual, English and German. The translation costs are included.
- Create an advertisement link on the ecc-ca.com homepage to the "property for sale web page". (English and German)
- As a special introduction offer the price (see below) includes the Link/Advertisement until the property is sold or cancelled by the seller.
- First contact service.

An own email address for the "property for sale web page" will be provided free of charge. First contacts of potentially interested parties will be handled by ECC based on the requirements and wishes of the "Seller" which were agreed on with ECC. (i.e. translation service)

•“The Seller”:

- Supplies all the information wanted to be published on the “property for sale web page” (the information should be provided by e-mail or another electronic word processing file format)
- Confirms that all the information provided to ECC are true and correct and to the best of the sellers knowledge.
- Provide (up to 6) pictures in a digital format.
- Will inform ECC if the property is sold or wishes to withdraw the advertising or the internet web page presence for any reason.
- The Seller is free to do further marketing of the property himself. (Like placing ads or internet listings, links to “property for sale web page” or list the property with a realtor.)
- The “Seller” is solely responsible for the content of his “property for sale web page” and releases ECC from any eventually claims of third parties.
